RICH PRIZES IN MISSING WORD CONTEST

Readers of Daily Register Offered Opportunity For Profit In Reading Advertisements

An entertaining and interesting feature is started in today's Daily Register, "The Missing Word Contest." It consists of a page of advertising which will be run for thirteen weeks and which we believe will be read each week by everyone of the Daily Register's large army of readers.

This feature page, of course, offers splendid advantages to the merchants as an advertising medium, while the "Missing Word Contest" offers an interesting proposition to our many readers for the reason that by carefully reading each ad every week they will have an opportunity to compete for the prizes of money which are offered as prizes and which go to those who are successful in finding all or the most of the missing words in the thirteen weeks.

On the contest page, the editor has intentionally omitted one whole word from one advertisement only. This word being omitted makes the sentence read grammatically wrong.

The word omitted this week begins with the letter A and ends with letter S. Now in order to find this word, the reader must read every ad on the page and when a sentence is found in which a word is omitted, the missing word must be supplied. The clue to finding the missing word each week will be found in the rules located in the center of the Contest page. When you are sure you have found the missing word, fill out the return blank with the answer. Be sure to write your name and address plainly and sign your name the same way on each succeeding answer. As an illustration, if you sign your name the first time Mrs. J. H. Jones and the next reply comes in Mrs. Mary Jones we have no way of determining that both replies belong to the same party. Mail all replies to Contest Editor, care this paper.

In order to be counted, replies must be in this office by Tuesday night of each week.

The Daily Register wishes to inform its readers that it is in no way responsible for the wording of advertisements that appear in print on the contest page. The advertisement is written by the merchant and sent in for publication. We set the advertisement in type, exactly as it has been written and take a proof of the ad. After the proofs have been read we draw a circle around a word in one of the advertisements, mark a notation on the proof "to be cut." The word is then taken out and the line properly spaced.

Each Wednesday after the Missing Word for the week previous, has been announced, the original copy containing the word and the proof of the advertisement showing the word in print, will be posted in one of the windowse in the front of our office.

The only persons barred from entering this contest are the employees of this office and their families or any one connected with the working force of this paper.

Business men and their families have the privilege to participate. The list of prizes to be given in the contest are listed with the rules on the Contest page. The readers should not give up if unable to find a word any week, but should keep trying until the close of the contest, for it is not believed that any one person will find all the missing words during the thirteen weeks.

The prizes will go to those finding the most of the missing words, so you may easily be repaid for your time and trouble if you find several of the thirteen missing words.

GOLF CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS FOR YEAR

A very enthusiastic meeting of the Richmond Golf Club was held in the court house at 7:30 Thursday evening. E. S. Wiggins presided.

A permanent organization was perfected and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Elmer Deatherage, President; R. J. McKee, Vice-President; Miss Marianne Collins, Secretary, and W. Neale Bennett Treasurer. Mrs. D. B. Shackelford, Hart Perry, Allen Zaring, Lewis W. Dunbar and R. H. Embree were appointed to compose the board of directors.

Several committees will be appointed in the near future by the board of directors. These committees will be known as the grounds committee, the campaign committee, publicity committee, greens committee and club house committee. The present campaign committee will act until the machinery of the new organization can get oiled and in good running order.

Some of the enthusiasts of the Richmond Golf Club have been in communication with several golf architects and it is the intention of the club to have one of these men come here in the near future and lay this course out. It is the intention to have everything in readiness by May 1st, so that the members will be playing golf at that date. There are several people in Richmond whom the "golf bug" has bitten and who have played golf on $50,000 golf courses in the south and many say that the site the Richmond Golf Club has leased is far superior to many comprising large investments.

Up to date 85 have joined the ranks and the campaign committee expects to have about 150 members by April 15th.

Several of the leading merchants of Richmond have been keeping wires hot for the last three or four days, getting in touch with golf equipment houses in order that when the time to play arrives, they will be able to cope with the big demand for golf sticks, balls etc.

TO TALK HOSPITAL AT BIG MEETING

Union Service At First Christian Church To Discuss What's Best To Do

There will be a popular meeting in the First Christian church Sunday night at 7:30 to consider the report of the conference committee regarding an addition to the Pattie A. Clay Infirmary on the building of a new hospital.

An out of town speaker will be present and short addresses will be made by representatives of the Pattie A. Clay Board and the medical board of Richmond, and by some of the pastors of the city. Many hoped that sentiment in favor of a new hospital will be so crystallized in this meeting that a permanent program looking to this end can be set up.

There will be special music in this union meeting which the choirs of the various churches will unite.

The following resolutions were adopted at a meeting of physicians of the city and county the past week. Drs. Murison Dunn, and M. M. Robinson being the committee:

As a result of the sentiment which has been aroused in the community demanding that more adequate hospital facilities be provided in order that the sick of our town and county can be properly cared for. Several of the physicians of town and county met to discuss it and if possible, arrive at some opinion which would express the sentiment of the physicians and in our opinion be the best procedure for the welfare of all, not only for the present needs, but for the future as well.

Our present hospital the Pattie A. Clay Infirmary, has done a noble work for the past 25 years, but the demand has far outgrown the capacity of the institution. We feel that the addition of a few rooms, even if it were possible to add to the present structure advantageously, which in our opinion is impossible, would be ill advised, as the cost of such an addition would be a splendid nucleus for the erection of a new building which would not only take care of the present needs, but for the future as well.

We feel that the present location is well suited, as there is ample space for a new building within easy distance, and with the old building which would provide a home for the nurses, and also some room which could be used for patients, if needed.

We believe that a building not necessarily ornate, but providing everything in the way of scientific arrangement and equipment of a modern hospital, of at least fifty bed capacity, will be needed.

The official board of the P. A. C. Infirmary concur with the sentiment of the physicians as above stated.

Mrs. E. Tutt Burnam, Pres.; Mrs. W. H. Grider, Pres. Ex. Board; Mrs. Geo. Simmons, Treas.; Mrs. A. J. Suit, Sec.

WALLER BENNETT, JR., DIES IN OREGON

Many relatives and friends here sympathize with Mrs. Samuel Bennett, of Lexington, formerly of Richmond, in the loss of her son, Waller Bennett, Jr., whose death occurred Friday at a hospital in Portland, Oregon. He had been ill for about a week and had undergone a throat operation, but was considered getting along favorably, as Mrs. Bennett had been informed in a telegram Friday morning, and then Friday evening the sad news came of his death.

Mr. Bennett was the second son of Mrs. Bennett and after being a student at the University of Kentucky, had gone to Chelard, Wash., near Seattle where he had established a successful fruit farm. He leaves his wife and little son who were with at the hospital in Portland. ## 600,000 MINERS ARE ESTIMATED ON STRIKE

Great Coal Fields Are All Shut Down But East Kentucky Is Mostly Working

(By Associated Press) For the first time in history both the bituminous and anthracite coal fields are idle today as a result of cessation of work by 600,000 miners effective midnight last night.

Union officials asserted 100,000 non-union miners are included in the walk out and that 6,000 of the 7,500 mines in the country are shut down.

The daily loss in the anthracite field alone will amount of $800,000 in wages and affects 20,000 families.

The first day of the nation-wide suspension fell on the anniversary of the adoption of the eight-hour day. As it is generally observed as a holiday in normal times, today's estimate of the completeness of the suspension is not regarded as final.

In Kansas where the Industrial Court ordered work to continue for a month, union officials asserted the walkout in that state will be complete Monday.

Operators in the Morgantown district of West Virginia announced today they would reopen Monday on an open shop basis.

Miners Shoot Policemen

Benton, Ill., April 1—Shooting occurred today in various parts of Southern Illinois where the strike is reported 100 per cent. Two casualties are reported. Night Chief of Police Jesse Henson was shot and seriously wounded and Policeman Walter Scone slightly hurt when a miner fired at them.

Ford's Coal Company Continues To Operate

Pineville, Ky., April 1—Union miners in the Bell and Harlan county coal fields are holding a series of mass meetings today in an effort to gain adherents. It is regarded as certain, however, the district will continue to operate at a fourth to a third of its capacity.

Henry Ford's Banner Fork Coal Corporation at Wallin's Creek Harlan county, will continue to operate, President Keller, of District 19, said today because the plant is "paying living wages." The United States Coal and Coke Company at Lynch, Harlan county, and Wisconsin Steel Company at Benham, also will continue in operation. The latter companies are non-union.

Miners Lose $2,000,000 A Day In Wage In Strike

Indianapolis, April 1—Reports to union headquarters here today showed a shutdown in every field in the country with the only uncertainty as to the effectiveness of suspension of work being the number of non-union miners who had joined the walkout. President John Lewis estimated 600,000 men are idle. Some operators said the effectiveness of the suspension of work will not be shown until Monday, apparently expecting some men to return to work then. Union officials estimated the lost daily production of bituminous coal at 1,200,000 tons and approximately $2,000,000 daily in wages.

Miss Helen Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. George David Jefferson, her guests, of London, England, were in Lexington Friday.

Mr. Bullitt McCown, of Lexington, made a business trip to Richmond Friday.

POOL TO DISTRIBUTE PROCEEDS OF SALE

With the closing of most of the receiving plants of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Association the past week, will come the work of apportioning a second distribution of funds received from the sale of the association crop, Secretary H. L. Earley said Saturday.

Mr. Earley said it will require some time to work out the apportionment and still further time to write the 75,000 checks necessary to make the distribution, and that, he said, was the reason he was unable to say just when the distribution would be made.

Mr. Earley said that there are not 75,000 members of the association, but that attachments had been served in some cases, and that there will be at least 20,000 assignments, most of these to secure loans advanced by banks, following the advance received on delivery, the banks receiving the check for the loan and the interest and the grower the remainder of the amount distributed.

Contracts continued to come in the past week to the office of Assistant Chief of the Field Service Division William Collins at the Tattersall warehouse. The number received the previous week was 235, representing 543,000 pounds of tobacco and with no special effort made by chairmen in any county to obtain signatures, most of those signing doing so voluntarily.

Of the 235 contracts received 85 came from Pendleton county, 32 from Lewis, 16 from Campbell, 10 from Clermont county, Ohio, nine from Green county, eight from Garrard, eight from Bullitt, seven from Boyle, six from Lincoln, six from Casey, five from Franklin and four from Henry. The others came from all parts of the district.

WILL PHOTOGRAPH THIEF'S FINGER PRINTS

Burglar Breaks Into Cox and March's Store But Leaves Strong Clew In Dust

The new act of the last legislature providing that a burglary committed in the night time may be punished by life imprisonment or death, in the discretion of the jury, evidently didn't frighten a bold burglar who forced his way into the Cox & March hardware store on West Main street some time Friday night.

The street lights weren't placed to give him the light he needed to find his way about, so he took a flash light out of a case and went about his business deliberately. Entrance was effected by tearing off a screen from a back window, breaking a pane of glass and the unlatching the window fastener.

After looting the store of everything he desired, he left. Mullikin's bloodhounds were quickly sent for and took trail, which led down South Second street across the Madison High school grounds, to Water, to Collins, out East Main, across to Irvine and to the old barrel factory. Here the dogs seemed unable to make further progress. Police think they have a pretty fair clew and are working hard on the case.

Only $5 in cash was secured by the midnight visitor. He sought entrance to the cash register, but evidently didn't know how to work it. So he picked up an auger and bored a couple of holes in one of the drawers. Then he evidently "caught on" to the trick, for the drawer was found open and $5 in change gone. Among other things missed were on Stevens 12-gauge shotgun; one Winchester 16-shot target rifle; about 100 manicure sets; 24 pearl handle pocket knives, a lot of fine razors; about $25 worth of cheap watches, in all amounting to about $250 worth of loot.

Finger prints were plainly visible on the dust of the window pane which was broken to permit the intruder to open the fastener. Capt. V. G. Mullikin broke off part of the pane with the finger prints and took it to Lexington to have photographs made and enlarged. In this way it will be able to positively identify the burglar if he is ever taken in charge. All over the world police use the finger print as the only sure method of identification as thousands of tests have proven that the lines on no two individuals' fingers are exactly the same.

UNUSUAL SORT OF AUTO ACCIDENT

An accident occurred Friday afternoon on the Big Hill pike about two miles from Richmond. About 5:30 o'clock, when a party of folks, driving at good speed, ran suddenly into a bunch of cattle. The brakes of the car failed to work and the car was turned over a bank. There were eight in the car: Mrs. Henry Conn and three daughters, Nora, Emilee and Gladys, Misses Hancock, Boatwright and Dudley. Virgil Morris was driving the car. None of the people was seriously injured. Two of the cattle were crippled, however.

One week from today is the Easter bazaar for the benefit of Pattie Clay Infirmary.

The Normal's Enlarged Field of Usefulness
The act of the legislature empowering the two normal schools to give degrees opens a wider range of usefulness to these two worthy public institutions. More rigid requirements for teachers were also laid down by legislative enactment, so that the enlarged prerogatives of Eastern and Western Normals will prove of real benefit to those who desire to fit themselves for this profession.

After July 1 all applicants for teachers' certificates will have to have one year of high school training, or its equivalent, and five weeks of professional training. In view of this provision of the new school law, Superintendent of Public Instruction Colvin is calling the attention of school superintendents to the two examinations for teachers' certificates to be held before the provision of the law goes into effect, the first on May 19 and 20, the second June 16 and 17.

Training schools for county teachers have been organized primarily to enable teachers to meet these requirements, but these will really only supplement the work of the Normals. Any teacher can obtain high school and professional credits by attending the county teacher training schools. They can obtain the same credits by attending the summer session of any teacher training institution supported or recognized by the state.

In addition to the credits that may be secured by attending county training schools, teachers may also increase their salary, as the salary schedules for this year will provide as last year, for an increase of salary for all those who do the required work in any summer school of six weeks' length, supported or recognized by the state.

OUT OF WORK GIVES TO RELIEF

Kentucky Man Sends In Subscription to American Jewish Relief Fund Although He Is Not Himself A Jew

Head of A Family of Seven And Without Work, Yet He Gives To The Relief of Starving Jewish People In Europe

Although not a Jew himself, and although he is out of work and the sole support of a family of seven, yet S. W. Glascock, of Greenville, Ky., was so stirred by the appeal of the American Jewish Relief Committee for the relief of starving and destitute orphans and men and women in Central and Eastern Europe that he has sent in a contribution of $7 to the headquarters of the Relief Committee, National Theater Building, Louisville.

In a letter to Col. Fred Levy, of Louisville, State Chairman of the campaign to raise $150,000 in Kentucky, Mr. Glascock says: "Enclosed find check for $5 to help the starving people in Europe. Please take and use this to help the needy. I am not a Jew, but I have sympathy for that starving nation and do hope you will be successful in raising the amount you intend. Also $2 for the destitute children. This is the amount I promised my Saviour to give these needy people over one year ago. So my promise is fulfilled today, yet I am a poor man with 7 in my family without work and have been for some time, but yet I feel disposed to help these people as the Great Master has been kind to me in my distress. Thanking you for your kindness in this great work, and I hope you won't have much trouble in raising your amount."

The appeal of the American Jewish Relief Committee is particularly directed to Jewish people but subscriptions in any amount will be gladly received from people of all faiths.

HERBERT HOOVER ENDORSES CAMPAIGN

Secretary of Commerce And Relief Expert Commends Work For Relief of Stricken Jewish People In Europe

Declares That The Jewish People In America Have Always Responded Liberally To All Efforts To Alleviate Distress

Probably no man in this country is better acquainted with conditions in Europe than Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce. Mr. Hoover has written David A. Brown, Chairman of the American Jewish Relief Committee, New York, fully endorsing the work of that organization which is seeking to raise $14,000,000 for the relief of starving and destitute Jewish people in Central and Eastern Europe.

Kentucky's share in the national campaign is expected to add at least $150,000 to the fund. Fifty thousand dollars is to be raised in the state and $100,000 in Louisville. While the campaign is under the direction of the Jewish people and subscriptions will be solicited largely from them, all who are in sympathy with the movement may contribute and their money will be gratefully received.

The letter from Secretary Hoover follows: "Dear Mr. Brown: "Each year when the American Jewish Relief Committee has made its appeal, I have had the honor of commending its work to the American people and likewise each year I have observed the continued necessity and the continued high efficiency of its service."

"It has always maintained a broad-mindedness in the matter of race and religion and has given its support, both financial and moral, to every effort in the alleviation of human distress."

"I trust the Committee will have the same support again that it has had hitherto."

"Yours faithfully,
"HERBERT HOOVER."

SUPPOSE YOU WERE STARVING

Meatless Days And Wheatless Days And Lightless Nights of War Period Are Recalled

But America Never Had One Foodless Day After Another As Is Now The Experience of Jewish People In Europe

This question if asked of the average American would at once be placed in the "idle dream" class. It is difficult for us here in Kentucky to believe that anywhere in this country men, women and children are starving and that belief is well borne out by the facts. We hear of some soup kitchens, some bread lines and some coffee houses in the big cities far away, but we find no starvation.

It even requires some tax on our brain works to recall the "meatless days" and the "wheatless days" and the "lightless nights" of a few brief months ago. But in all that time of stress and trouble we never had a foodless day and if we did we never had two of them in succession.

But that is exactly what is going on in Central and Eastern Europe today. Literally thousands of innocent children are dying for lack of nourishment. They are wandering about eating roots, grass, anything to try to satisfy the growing pangs of hunger.

The same thing is true of men and women. Homeless, clothed in rags, living on anything that offers even the meager nourishment, they are stumbling on praying for the relief that must come if they are to live.

This is the reason for the campaign for funds by the American Jewish Relief Committee in Kentucky the latter part of March.

BLUE GRASS FIRES THE OPENING GUN

Big Meeting At Lexington Starts The Campaign For The American Jewish Relief Committee

Delegates From Many Cities Gather To Form Organization For Raising Money For Stricken People of Europe

One of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held in the Blue Grass was called to order in the Lafayette Hotel in Lexington Sunday afternoon, March 5, by Mrs. L. Heyman, who introduced Col. Fred Levy, of Louisville, State Chairman of the drive in Kentucky to raise $150,000 for the relief of destitute Jewish people in Central and Eastern Europe.

Delegates were present from Lexington, Winchester, Paris, Carlisle, Cynthiana, Danville and other cities in the Blue Grass.

Col. Levy in his address told of the great needs of the starving and destitute children, of the men and women, in the war-torn sections of Central and Eastern Europe who, through no fault of their own, were compelled to undergo untold sufferings and whose only relief lies in the willingness of the people of the United States to help them.

Col. Levy referred to the great work of "Jimmie" Becker, son of a rich Chicago banker, who refused a life of ease and as a member of Herbert Hoover's relief forces abroad brought back to this country such a soul-stirring appeal that Julius Rosenwald, the well known financier, called a conference which started the great drive. David A. Brown, a successful business man of Detroit who attended the conference was so impressed that he turned back his tickets already purchased for a year's pleasure trip abroad and changed into the task of raising $14,000,000 for relief work.

"We are going to give as we have never given before," said Col. Levy, "and until every orphan, every victim has been provided with food and clothing, homes, hospitals, schools and until each man is granted the right to work and support his family. These sufferers are not beggars; many among them were financially better off than you and I are before they were caught in the maelstrom of war. They are not asking for charity. They are asking for relief and we are going to see that they get it. We invite members of other faiths to join with us in this great work."

Other speakers were Rabbi Ranch of Louisville, Jonas Weil, of Lexington, Edward Sachs, of Louisville and many others. A mass meeting will be held in Lexington Sunday, March 19, when the campaign in the Blue Grass will be started.

More facts you should know BUICK FIRST AGAIN IN YELLOWSTONE PARK!

Each year since Yellowstone Park was opened to automobile travel by the U. S. Government, more Buicks have made this difficult trip than any other car excepting Ford.

The figures for 1921, just announced, show 1871 Buicks passed through the Park during that season, 412 more than any other make.

The Yellowstone Park tour calls for every ounce of car performance—miles away from service for days at a time—the car must never fail. And that is why each year an increasing number of Park tourists depend on Buick.

Buick cars measure up to Buick reputation.

IN THE MOVIES

Corinne Griffith In A Spectacular Film

"The Single Track," which is to be shown at local theatres Saturday, is based on a novel by Douglas Grant and is of unusual interest and contrast. The earlier scenes are laid in New York and show several society events. Then the heroine, played by Corinne Griffith, goes to her mining property personally to take charge, as she learns rival interests are trying to thwart plans of joining her mine with the main line of the railroad. This line must be finished before an option on the right of way expires and rival mining interests employ foul means to cause delays. As a last resort they destroy by dynamite a trestle just after a locomotive, driven by the heroine, passes over in safety. This scene is exceptionally thrilling and one that holds the spectators spellbound.

DANGER OF FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE

(By Associated Press)

Frankfort, Ky., Mar. 31.—A warning to raisers of hogs, cattle and sheep to be careful not to feed such livestock hay and straw used in the packing of imported goods because of danger of foot and mouth disease, was issued here today by Dr. W. K. Simmins, State Veterinarian.

Animals cared for by immigrant farm laborers, who recently have come to this country, also should be examined frequently, he said. Foot and mouth disease is prevalent in many foreign countries at present, Dr. Simmins said, and especially in Great Britain.

"I have just recently noticed from the United States Bureau of Animal Industry that the foot and mouth disease has appeared in 906 herds in Great Britain and required the slaughter of 43,735 animals. The United States has been fortunate in escaping an invasion of this plague as it is exposed by commercial contact with many countries in which the disease has been unusually prevalent since the war."

"The Bureau of Animal Industry is using every reasonable precaution to prevent invasion of the disease and will continue to do so. But there are some sources of danger difficult to guard against. For instance it seems possible for the virus of the disease to be carried long distances in the clothing or other belongings of immigrant laborers or in hay and straw used as packing for crockery and other goods."

"In order to guard against the disease and to get word of the first appearance of the disease, should this state be so unfortunate as to have another outbreak, this office is asking all state and municipal officers and importers of goods to be on the alert to prevent hay and straw used in packing imported goods, from reaching cattle, sheep and hogs, the three types of farm animals susceptible to the disease, and where possible to have animals attended by immigrant farm labor arriving recently in the community, observed from time to time to ascertain whether they develop the disease."

PENSIONS FOR IDIOTS CUT OFF IN STATE

(By Associated Press)

Frankfort, Ky., April 1.—Approximately 1,800 pauper idiots throughout the state will either become county charges or charges of relatives of various degrees on June 30, as a result of failure of the House of Representatives to pass the bill calling for renewal of funds necessary for their support. The Senate passed the bill but in the hurry of the closing days of the General Assembly, the House failed to bring up the measure.

Kentucky, for a quarter of a century or more, has been unable to house all of its feeble-minded and idiots in state institutions. The present feeble-minded institution is crowded to capacity with almost five hundred inmates. As a result of the inability to house idiots in institutions the state has maintained a pension system whereby each idiot has received for maintenance $75 a year or a total of approximately $120,000 a year.

For the past four years it has been planned to build an institution large enough to house all of pension list and thus cut off the payment of funds into the hands of third persons to be spent for their upkeep. The General Assembly, however, has failed to provide such an institution and this year the state's finances were such that no bill for an institution was introduced. The pension bill was put before the legislature, however, but after passing the Senate by an unanimous vote failed to be brought out of the House Rules Committee.

The state after June 30, it was said at the Capitol today, will have to stop payment of the funds to idiots because there is no authority in law for the payments. This will cause the counties to have to care for those whose families and friends will not take of them and it is probable, it was said, that many will have to go into poor houses or county infirmaries.

SUIT OVER CLARK'S HIGHWAY WORK

Frankfort, Ky., April 1.—Suit for $74,453 today was filed in the Franklin Circuit Court by the Clark County Construction Company against the State Highway Commission and Joe S. Boggs, state highway engineer. The suit was for alleged differences between the cost of building 6.6 miles of the Winchester-Lexington pike, and the contract price due, it is alleged, to changes made in the specifications by the highway department.

The construction company was awarded a contract for building 6.03 miles of rock asphalt road from the city limits of Winchester to the Fayette county line, or the turnpike between Lexington and Winchester. The contract price was $1.40 a square yard.

The construction company in its petition alleged that the specifications called for two inches of asphalt on top of a layer of stone that would go through a two-inch sieve, but not through a three-fourths inch sieve. It is alleged that the engineer refused to permit the use of the smaller stone and also required the contractor to use three and one-half inches of rock asphalt spread by hand instead of the two inches in the specifications.

The suit asks for $66,860 for rock asphalt at the rate of 70 cents for each one square yard one inch thick, $2,794 interest and $4,800 for 1,200 tons of crushed stone which the engineer declared was too small to use.
